Your Generosity Makes a Difference – Thank YOU!

- As a year round collection site, the library community helped feed the hungry with donations of 740 pounds of non-perishable foods in 2017; 325 pounds were collected during our Food for Fines program that runs each November and December.
- We are also a collection site for the Diaper Bank of Westchester and through your donations have helped many families who otherwise would go without these essential items. Our last donation was of 693 diapers that will cover approximately 14 baby's bottoms for one week each.

Remember to VOTE

Library Budget Proposition Vote Tuesday, May 15th – 7:00 am – 9:00 pm at the Frank G. Lindsey Elementary School Gym.

Don't miss these and other opportunities to celebrate reading and library use with our various events and programs.

The Read Through:

A Play-Reading Group

Thursday, May 10; 4:30 pm

Back by popular demand! Join the HHFL play-reading group led by library staff member Anna DeAngelis. Participants will read through scripts from plays, much like actors do when first preparing for a production. Our group will not culminate in a performance—our goal is to simply have fun. Inexperienced and experienced readers are welcomed. The only criteria are the love of plays and the joy of reading. Copies of the play will be available at the Circulation Desk. Registration by phone begins April 26. May's Play: "Six Degrees of Separation" by John Guare.

The Royal Wedding

Saturday, May 19
Time TBD

Royal watchers – can't make the trip to London for the Royal Wedding? You are cordially invited to join the library staff, co-hosted with HHFL's very own Cookbook Book Club, at a broadcast of the wedding of Prince Harry and Meghan Markle. Celebrate the event of the decade with English tea, Royal Trivia, prizes, and more. It will be a jolly good time! Registration by phone begins May 5. Details will be available at that time.

Teen Book Club

Wednesdays, 6:30 pm

March 21:

Lucky Strikes, Louis Bayard

In Depression-era Virginia, fourteen-year-old Amelia's mother dies, leaving her in charge of a struggling gas station and her two younger siblings. What begins as a tale of loss becomes a grand adventure and a memorable, warmhearted story of family. Snacks and beverages will be served! The first 10 students who register receive a FREE copy – registration begins February 21. For teens grade 6 and up.

May 16:

The Nest, Kenneth Oppel

Steve's baby brother is ill so he makes a deal with an angel-like wasp queen for a new healthy substitute in this memorable psychological thriller. Snacks and beverages will be served! The first 10 students who register receive a FREE copy – registration begins March 21. For teens grade 6 and up.

Basket-Making Like an Artist

Mondays, 6:00 pm; March 12, 19

For adults & teens grade 6 and up. Register today.

Battle of the Books

Informational Meeting

Tuesday, April 17: 6:30 pm

Battle of the Books is a book-based trivia tournament for Westchester youth pitting library against library! The program's goals are to promote a love of reading, to expose students to titles and authors they might not encounter otherwise, to encourage them to think of their local library as a resource for entertainment, and inspire teamwork and good sportsmanship in an atmosphere of friendly competition. Team members will read five librarian-selected titles, attend practice sessions to answer trivia questions, and represent our library at the competition scheduled for October 20, 2018 at Hendrick Hudson High School. Open to those in grades 4 - 6 and grades 7 - 10 in September of the upcoming school year. Come hear what it's all about from our Children's and Teen Librarian and those who battled last year!

Researching Colleges:

A Guided Tour

Wednesday, April 18: 7:00 pm

During this workshop with Jeff Hirsch of College Starter, participants learn to prioritize various criteria, e.g. size, location, school setting, course offerings, etc., that make a particular set of colleges a good fit. In addition, we will look at multiple online tools and resources for researching colleges and learn how such factors at each college as selectivity, retention, and graduation rates can guide a student's decision whether or not to apply to or attend that school. Registration begins April 4. For teens grade 9 and up and their families.

DIY Mother's Day Card-making

Tuesday, May 8: 6:00 pm

Make a creative card using a selection of beautiful embellishments including stickers, papers, crystals, beads, etc. We supply the adornments, you can lovingly create the card! Adults & teens grade 5 and up. Registration begins April 24.
